Weymouth.
Jan 5. 1862

Dear Mr Garrison

My eyes trouble me so much at the present time that I hardly use them at all, but I can not refrain from writing one line to thank you for your kind remembrance of us all and to say how happy we shall all be to see you.

World Thursday next

the 9th, be a convenient day for you to come to Weymouth. It would give us great pleasure
if you & Mrs Garrison could come down in the afternoon in the half past 2 Train & spend the night.
The weather is very cold but we will promise you a warm house as well as a warm welcome.
Should you prefer Friday
it will be equally convenient to us. Please write a few lines that we may know when to expect you.

With very kind regards
from my mother & all the family to yourself & Mrs Garrison

believe me,
my dear friend
very affectionately & truly Yr Anne Weston.